Requesting $400 from our budget, all money will be given as we get it. Going to make flash drive for four orientations. Need twenty-five to pay for the drives; we are waiting on word from Bayview Behavioral.

PHONE LINE: Alex N:

As of Feb 17th- March 2022, WE had 8 calls. We have improved our people of service from 14 members to 20 members and 19 active members that are now available to help the next suffering addict, who needs guidance or the nearest n.A meeting that’s available. Since the beginning of the year, we have had calls from three rivers, Victoria, Beeville, Swinney, Switch Tx, Sinton, Taft, Rockport, Aransas pass, flour bluff Ingleside, Odem, Alice, and Kleberg County. The eight calls mostly focused in Corpus Christi and Rock port area. I have sent out 5 orientation packages for the new members who participated, I will be setting up an orientation interview this upcoming week for new members. I really appreciate everyone who is willing to be of service on this phone line, lets stand together and deliver a shot of hope.

ACTIVITES: Jerrie R:
Hello family,
Not much to report this month, no events were held. So our spring event is approaching and activities will be joining H&I and combining our events, we are planning on having it at West Guth Park 9700 Upriver Rd April 16th we will have 2 speakers, food, and egg hunt for the kiddos. I'm asking area for $300 dollars to support the event. In loving service. Jerrie
